

TUESDAY, MAY 21, 1745.

Small of a Private Letter from Franckfort, dated May 19, 1745.

LL the necessary Preparations for the Dyet of Election are carried on with the utmost Vigour; and there is no one publick Circumstance, that can seem so much as to intimate, that it will not take Place at the Time prefix'd, which is the 1st of next Month. Some of our Politics, nevertheless, begin to surmise it will be put off, and that to the 1st of September. I can say nothing to this Matter at present; but, perhaps, by the 1st of it, it will be in my Power to tell you what I think of it. As for the Circle of the Upper Rhine, Deliberations in their Assembly have hitherto roll'd on their Domestic Affairs, and not at all on Matters regarding the Publick, whatever other People may think you. Whence this arises I cannot say, but that is very unaccountable, I readily allow.

The Head Quarters of the Prince of Conti continue where they were, at Langen-Schwallbach; and we do not perceive any very considerable Motion of the French on the Lahn: The Duke of Artemberg keeps his Army so well posted, that they neither want Provisions, nor can be attack'd by the French, without great Risque of being undone. They continue to buy up great Quantities of Oats here for the Use of the French Army, which they pay for in Ready Money, and a pretty round Price too, rather than to lay upon their Magazines; by which Method they have been hitherto pretty well served, tho' we may imagine from whence the Corn comes; since it is certain, that half the Quantity could not have been had by Violence; so that, after all, it seems, Money will do more than Military Execution.

We are in very great Pain about the Hessian Troops who remain still upon the Danube. A few Days ago the Austrians began to press upon them closely, with View of making them Prisoners of War; upon which, they immediately took up Arms, and form'd a kind of Barricade. Their Countenance plainly shew'd that they were become desperate; and that they were determined to be cut to Pieces rather than submit, as the Prussians had done. It was for this Reason that the Duke of Brunswick gave Orders to his Troops to remain, and dispatch'd a Courier to Vienna, to know the Prussian Minister upon this Subject. There has been since these few Days a strong Report, that her Majesty has concluded a Peace with the King of Prussia; which is so good News, that we wish it may be confirmed; of which, however, there is little Hopes; since the Prussian Minister treats it as a Fiction; affirming, that his Master will never hear of a Negotiation, while he is Vor for the Grand Duke is demanded as a Ransom.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bristol, May 18. The Mare of the Union Brig, Capt. Turner, of this Port, being return'd from St. Malo's, gave Advice that after having out-run two Privateers the 17th of April last, they were, notwithstanding, unfortunately taken the next Morning by two Privateers of St. Malo, 15 Leagues to the Westward of Ushant; she call'd the Prince of Conti, of 30 Guns, and 300 Men; the other the Larcoux, of 32 Guns, and 300 Men. The French used Capt. Turner and his Men extremely civil; but in a few Hours after he was taken, his Vessel sunk down-right, the French in her narrowly escaping being drown'd.

The above Privateers have taken the Nightingale Brig, Kenny, from Biddeford for Maryland; and the Peace, Hopkins, of Biddeford; the first is sent into St. Malo's, the other into Brest.

By Letters from Lisbon there is Advice, that Commodore Osborn, with his Squadron, was cruising off Cape St. Vincent, to intercept some Spanish Register Ships, hourly expected from the Havanna at Cadiz.

LONDON.

They write from Prague, that they expect there a Train of Artillery from Vienna of 100 Pieces of Battering Cannon, and 50 Mortars; whence it is conjectur'd, that either Prince Charles of Lorraine, or the Duke of Saxe Weissenfels, will undertake some Siege of Importance, perhaps that of Neiss; for it is foreseen, that the King of Prussia will retire out of its Neighbourhood on the Approach of the Allied Army.

We learn from Vienna, that the famous Baron Trenck has obtained from her Hungarian Majesty, Letters Patent to enable him to raise a complete Regiment of Pandours, consisting of 2300 Men, exclusive of two Companies of Grenadiers. The Queen is to furnish a Fusil, two Pistols, a Sabre and Cut-throat to each Man, with 30 German Florins; Twenty for his Uniform, and Ten by way of Encouragement. They are to have the same Pay as the rest of the Hungarian Troops, and a like Quantity of Ammunition Bread.

Her Hungarian Majesty has order'd all the Peasants in the Black Forest to have Arms given them; and has promis'd to support them with a Corps of 500 Hussars, and Three Battalions of Regular Troops; by the Help of which, it is believed, they will be able to drive the French entirely out of the Brisgau.

They write from Paris, that the French King has bestow'd on the Duke de l'Esper, the Government held by the Duke de Gramont, his Father; and has settled a Pension of 10,000 Livres per Annum on the Duchess de Gramont. As for the Regiment of French Guards, the King gave it, on the Field of Battle, to the Duke de Biron, in Consideration of his having had Five Horses kill'd under him in the Action.

Some private Letters from Brussels say, that his Royal Highness the Duke had dispatch'd the Earl of Crawford, in order to execute a Commission of Importance at the French Camp.

The Two Brothers from S. Domingo, last from Falmouth, for London, Prize to the Dursley Privateer, is lost off Lyme.

There is an Account from Boulogne, that the Dogger and Rowboat Privateers of that Place, who engaged the Sutherland Privateer, Capt. John Sutherland, off Dover, (as lately mentioned in this Paper) are both returned to that Place; the former of which had 14 Carriage Guns and 150 Men, which was considerable more than her Complement; and with the Rowboat of 6 Guns, and 80 Men, were sent out on purpose to take the Sutherland, but have paid very dear for that Attempt. The Dogger had 15 Men kill'd, and twice that Number wounded; among the latter is the Captain, who had the Misfortune to lose his Private Parts by a Swivel Shot; but don't hear any particular Account of the Damage done the Rowboat.

We hear that his Majesty arrived at Hanover in good Health on Friday last.

Sir Chaloner Ogle is expected Home very soon, with several Ships of War, from Jamaica.

ANTI-SYPHYLICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Ulcer, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and dangerous Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attending Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely cured in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Ulcer on one Hand, or a venereal Gleet or Weakness on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Ulcer attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Swelling, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are overcome by it, and effectually and much more speedily cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Remedy whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without pairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands bear their great Joy experience'd.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Illness, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and to good Accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to remain in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Ulcers of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it cleanses no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, in Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even Venereal Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine yet known can do.

The Price of this most Noble Anti-Syphylicon is Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is pointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. R. Greenough's, Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. George's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready seal'd up with a Sheet of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who are ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scum.
